

Conventions for my USCensus abstracts are defined here.

My source for the USCensus was the Ancestry version, and I searched the index for all “Rath*” and “Roth*”. I also picked up a few misread or misindexed RATHBONES on the same page as those that came up.

For 1880 and before, where I’ve abstracted any RATHBONES in a jurisdiction (whether county or state), I’ve abstracted all the RATHBONES in that jurisdiction; any exceptions will be noted below.

For 1900 on, though, abstracts are partial—particular to members of the RATHBONE Patrilineage 1 Project.

Households are sorted by: Year (high to low), State, County, Township, and USCensus Page#.

“(alpha FLS)” qualifying a list, means that it has been alphabetized on first letter of surname, thus destroying most evidence of neighborhood propinquity for the listed households.

It appears that this Rosa Rathbun (aged 53, b. Ire) was the widow of (possibly) a brother of Jack (Saxton), and that the remaining members of the household are HER daughters (one of them widowed) and granddaughter, not the head of household, Jack's.

NEW YORK, OTSEGO County (1850)

Here's a township map for OtsegoCoNY.

RATHBONES appear in all of these townships: Burlington, Hartwick, Laurens, Oneonta, Otego, Pittsfield, Springfield, and Unadilla.

Both the "Rathbone" and the "Rathbun" spellings occur here and are probably indicative of different extended families, although most of these are probably RATHBONE Patrilineage 1 cousins. Most are born in NY, and a smattering in RI, whence cometh, ultimately, all of the RATHBONES of this patrilineage. There is one Mary Rathbone (aged 30) said to have been born in England, but this is probably a mistake.

This household is of interest because of the 1870 WarrenCo household with a Charles Rathun, (aged 24, laborer). There's a gap in the birth order within this family that might accommodate a son Charles born about 1845.

This WarrenCoPA household of Charles Rathbun, following, is one of only 18 RATHBONE households in PA.

 * 1830 USCensus *

In this year, 2 of the 14 RATHBONE households in PA are in WarrenCo, both apparently in the same neighborhood of Pine Grove, one headed by Ranson Rathbone, the other by L[evant?] Rathbone. By contrast, there are 146 households headed by RATHBONES in NY this year.

The structure of these two Huntsville households is strikingly similar, and given that they are separated by just one other in this non-alphabetized list, the conjecture immediately presents itself that they were brothers who married late, within the last several years. Interestingly, William's household, it is said, includes two members aged 25+ who are deaf and dumb.

Here's a township map for OtsegoCoNY.

Several Rathbun households appear on a list with no township identification, and one, "E. Rathbun" is indexed to the first page of Springfield Twp, but there are no RATHBONES on that page. Although the OtsegoCo sheriff and his deputies who responsible for this census wer too lazy and incompetent to identify the householders of his county adequately, using their full name, in most cases the given names of these Rathbun householders can be inferred from those of other USCensuses, and from the History of OtsegoCo which lays out many of these families in some detail.

CONNECTICUT (1790)

For New London County, all townships were concatenated together, unalphabetized. I expect that townships could be determined by comparing sections of grouped names with the town vital records.
